

Justin Bloom

(917) 991-7593

bloomesq1@gmail.com

Education: Tulane Law School, Juris Doctor New Orleans, Louisiana
Certificate in Environmental Law, Environmental Law Clinic May 1996

New College of Florida Sarasota, Florida
Bachelor of Arts, Environmental Studies May 1991

Licensure: Florida ('96), 11th Cir. Court of Appeals ('97), NY ('01), SDNY, EDNY, MDL, SDFL, NDFL, LEED® Accredited

Litigation: Specializing in complex toxic contamination and pharmaceutical litigation, representing residents and property owners to recover toxic exposure and property damages in "toxic tort" environmental litigation such as the BP Oil Spill and Plaintiffs in defective/dangerous drug litigation such as Avandia, Depuy Hip, Vioxx, and others.

Consulting: Representing Municipalities, NGOs and Corporations in environmental and business matters ranging from contract negotiations to program development and project management, providing support services and applying creative solutions to challenging environmental problems.

Prior Experience:

The Murray Firm, New Orleans, Louisiana 2005 to May 2010
Representing consumers, health insurance companies and Attorney Generals in complex class-action pharmaceutical lawsuits involving overcharging schemes and injuries related to blockbuster drugs like Oxycontin, Vioxx and Neurontin. Represented the Louisiana State AG through trial in EDLA vs. Merck in the first MDL governmental action bellwether trial.

Columbia University School of Law
Visiting Clinic Supervisor June 2005 to September 2005
Supervisor at the Environmental Law Clinic on a complex case involving air, water and solid waste pollution issues.

Governors Island Alliance
Advisory Board Member 2004-2007
Advising on issues related to the redevelopment of Governor's Island in New York City's Harbor.

Riverkeeper, Inc.
Staff Attorney February 2002 to August 2004
Attorney for Hudson Riverkeeper, the flagship environmental organization for Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s Waterkeeper Alliance.

Hoberman & Trepp, P.A.
Associate Attorney March 2001 to December 2001
Plaintiff's Tort Litigation

Kallins & Little, P.A.
Associate Attorney July 1997 to July 2000
Plaintiff's Tort Litigation, Criminal Defense and Immigration

Morgan & Hendrick, P.A.

Associate Attorney

Summer Associate

July 1996 to July 1997

Summer 1995

Land Use Law and General Civil Litigation. Counsel to Monroe County, Florida (the Keys and Everglades) for Legislative, Enforcement Takings Defense, and general litigation matters.

The Mesoamerican Biological Corridor Legal Project

Research Assistant

San Jose, Costa Rica

July 1993 to June 1994

The Hispanic American Alliance

Member of the Board of Directors

1998 to 2002

Languages: English & Spanish (Proficient Written and Spoken)